

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

JOB PRINTING DONE

At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with service rendered. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1920.

$1.50 A YEAR. (Outside Ohio, $2.00)

Washingtonville

A. L. Taylor of Greenford was a caller here, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Thos. Murphy and children returned home from several weeks' visit with her parents in Harpersville.

Mrs. Wm. Chidister was a Salem visitor, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spiker of Akron were Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Fry.

Miss Ethel Paisley of Leetonia was a guest on Saturday of Mrs. Ralph Warner.

David Sommererville is again confined to his home by sickness.

Miss Antoinette Masso was badly bitten on the arm by a strange dog, Tuesday morning. The dog got away, so it is not known that it had the rabies. Medical attention was given the little miss and she seems to be getting along all right.

Mrs. O. Bossett and daughter Ruth were Salem visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Deener of Youngstown spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stouffer.

Miss Alice Roller of Canton was a guest last week of Miss Helen Weikart.

Charles Woods of East Palestine was a caller at the home of Gideon and Miss Carrie Woods, Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Bell was a Leetonia caller, Monday evening.

Miss Ruth and Glenn Smedley of Youngstown spent Sunday with their parents here.

Mrs. C. H. Weikart, son Donald and daughters Ruth and Mary were Salem visitors, Tuesday.

One of the social events last week was the May dance given by three local young men in town hall, Wednesday evening. The hall was attractively decorated in pink and green. The gathering was one of the largest of this season. Parties from all neighboring towns came to enjoy the evening. Lodge's orchestra furnished the music. One of the pleasing features was a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Charles Moore of Cleveland is at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. A. Schaeffer, Sunday afternoon.

Frederick in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Eliza Wilkinson of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. John Archibald were weekend guests of Mrs. Winifred Baker.

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Layton DeLaurier of Rochester are at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smedley, Mr. and Mrs. David Weikart and Miss Helen Woods, who spent the week in that city with relatives and friends.

H. L. McNeal is painting the home of Mr. Jones Bellhart on Columbiana street, Leetonia.

Mrs. Moses Grindle was a caller at the home of John Hileman, Leetonia, Sunday afternoon.

John Wilson of Cleveland spent Sunday here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Kennedy.

E. S. Freed and family of Youngstown spent Sunday here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller.

On account of the scarcity of houses here, Claire Waggle was compelled to store his household goods till he can find one.

A fine baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claire Waggle last Friday evening. Mrs. Waggle is the wife of his mother in East Liverpool.

Clarence Tate submitted to an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids last Sunday at the home of Miss Amanda Bilger. He is getting along nicely.

Thomas Fraser bought the property from Geo. King on Water street. He will put improvements on it for a home.

Mr. Coy and family of near Columbiana will move into the Joshua property on Main street.

Mrs. Wm. Sommererville was a Salem visitor, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stevenson, Mrs. G. W. Senheiser, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Senheiser, Ensign Senheiser and lady friend of New Castle motored here on Sunday and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deane.

James Fulton, who has been confined to his home with scarlet fever, is able to be about.

Mrs. L. A. Callahan of Salem entertained at a one o'clock luncheon in honor of Miss Mabel Hollingworth of Poynton, England, last Friday. Mrs. L. L. Frederick of Alliance, Miss Helen Weikart, Mrs. Charity Roller and Mrs. Winifred Baker of Washingtonville were invited guests. The afternoon was delightfully spent with music and fancy work.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hawn and daughter of Sebring spent Sunday with Miss Amanda Bilger, Miss Pearl Wood who was in the home two weeks, accompanied them home.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

May 19.—Christian Endeavor every Sunday evening 8:30. There will be preaching Sunday evening by Rev. Reiff.

Orin Flick is able to be out again.

Mrs. Wm. J. Knight and Mrs. August Haefka are slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schisler of Canfield township and Mrs. Charles Campbell of Austintown called on Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Rourke, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Clara Miller of Youngstown is visiting Mrs. Shoffner.

Joseph and Rafe Shoffner are re-modeling the house owned by R. O'Rourke and moved to their lot.

Bert Knight and Cioe Bishop are employed by the G. M. McKelvey Co. in Youngstown.

Perry Ohi is building a porch to his residence.

Mrs. Lee Anderson has purchased a lot in the Wickliffe plat.

The skeleton in the closet may be brought to life without the aid of this new-fangled spiritism.

When a girl wins a fellow's heart it's up to him to throw in a diamond for good measure.

ISLAND

May 19.—Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McClun, Mrs. Nellie Reichard and daughter Esther spent Sunday afternoon with Clark McClun and family at West Middlesex, Pa.

Fifteen of our young folks spent Friday evening with Michael Showalter.

Several from here attended Jacob W. Calvin's sale last Saturday afternoon.

Henry Lehman and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burns at Pleasant Grove.

Paul Calvin was a week-end guest of his parents here.

Miss Esther Reichard is spending several days with relatives in West Middlesex.

Mrs. Im Blosser, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Salem hospital, is recovering.

Fred Brudery and family and Miss Bertha Teescher spent Sunday at Wm. Brudery's near North Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Heatwole and Mrs. Fannie Wenger of Dayton, Va., are visiting friends here.

Miss Mary Knopp returned to Wadsworth, Thursday.

Callers at D. R. Lehman's last Sunday were Alvin Detrow and family, Paul Calvin, Miss Bertha Teescher, Adam Wenger, James Calvin, Henry Lehman and family, Mrs. Susan Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Heatwole and Mrs. Fannie Wenger of Dayton, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dickson and son of Leetonia, Miss Thelma Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Calvin of Youngstown, Morrell Weikart and friend of Washingtonville.

Singing was held in the home of Edwin Weaver and family last Sunday evening.

Miss Thelma Summer of Youngstown spent Sunday night and Monday with her uncle, Henry Lehman, and family.

Paul Martin has the measles.

Miss Edna Coy, daughter of Stelvin Coy, and Ralph Oesch of New Springfield were united in marriage last Wednesday. Friends extend congratulations.

H. A. Schaeffer is taking a three weeks' course as juror in Youngstown. Wm. Coy and family moved to Washingtonville, Monday. Ira Blosser and family will occupy the house vacated.

Fred Brudery was the first on the island to plant corn.

MILVILLE

May 19.—Home Circle Club members were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Mary Kendig at her home Thursday afternoon. The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Mary Kendig. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Ora Hailley, Miss Mary Huffman served as secretary. Twelve members responded to roll call. The club was pleasantly entertained with a reading given by Mrs. N. H. Knapp and a recitation by Miss Vesta Kendig, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Vesta Kendig and Mrs. Jerry Kendig. Miss Elizabeth Yeager of Youngstown and Miss Kendig of Greenford were guests. The next meeting will be held the second Thursday afternoon in June at the home of Mrs. Freeman Hailley.

The pie social held Thursday evening by the Sunday school was well attended and a neat sum was realized. The short literary program was enthusiastically received.

The local school taught by Miss Mary Archer has closed for the summer vacation, and Saturday the annual picnic was held at the school house. About 40 sat down to a bountiful dinner. A baseball game in the afternoon was an interesting feature of the day.

Miss Lucy Alverson sold her fruit farm to Ellis Coats of Salem.

David Reese, Jr., of Youngstown, spent several days here last week with his grandmother, Mrs. Ann Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Strawn of Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch and daughter Doris spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Oesch of Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Holwick and daughters of Salem called on Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holwick.

Mrs. Wm. Howells spent Tuesday with her parents in Washingtonville.

Charles Calladine spent the week-end with friends in Salem.

Lloyd Roebusch of Salem spent Sunday here with his friend, Homer Reese.

TURNER STREET

May 19.—James Reed and son Howard were at Warren Loveland's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen DeCamp of Youngstown spent Saturday with W. S. Rhodes and wife.

Mrs. I. S. Pershing, sons Carson, Samuel, Frederick and daughter Florence spent Monday at John Brown's.

Mrs. J. W. Ockerman and daughters and Mrs. Keene spent the first of the week in Greenville, Pa.

Mary Kennedy spent Sunday at T. M. Thomas' and went with them to Mr. Aldrich's in North Jackson, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Brick of Youngstown were at T. J. Brick's, Sunday.

Thomas Kennedy was in Youngstown, Tuesday.

Mrs. C. T. Brooke spent Sunday afternoon in North Lima.

Emery Lawrence spent Sunday evening at Alfred Kennedy's.

Mrs. A. H. Bailey was at Adam Brobst's Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brobst and daughter Yonna are Sunday visitors at Wm. Harhoff's in Austintown.

John Brown, wife and son Harry were at I. S. Pershing's, Sunday.

Mary and Nora Kennedy spent Wednesday night at T. M. Thomas'.

Charles Carson was home Sunday evening.

Clyde Brobst of Warren was home over Sunday.

Luther Brobst was home from Canfield a short time, Sunday.

New bird arrivals were the woodpecker and kingbird.

When the weather is raw we feel like roasting it.

GREENFORD

May 19.—Mr. and Mrs. William Harmon of Lowellville called on Mr. and Mrs. Rob Bush, last Thursday.

Miss Shelo of Columbus will meet with the ladies of the home department of the farm bureau in grange hall, Wednesday, May 26. Everybody invited.

Rev. Conrad, missionary superintendent of the East Ohio Synod, will preach in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning at the usual service hours.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thompson of Orangeville were Sunday guests of W. I. Hahn.

Rev. Naffziger and family moved to Alliance last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Clay and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Clay and son of Youngstown were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Clay. Moses remained for the week.

Mrs. Ada Keller and M. D. Smeltzer of Columbiana were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williamson.

Ray Callahan is working for A. B. Williamson a few days at present.

Rev. Naffziger of Alliance preached in the Lutheran church last Sunday night.

Mrs. Nellie Bush spent last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Shindler, in Canfield.

John McElish accidentally ran into Raymond Yeager's machine one day last week while running too close to another car. Result, a broken wheel for the McElish car.

There was a poultry demonstration at the home of Mrs. Joseph Kindig last Tuesday morning and an instructor from Columbus was present. He gave much valuable information.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clay and daughter Lulu and Mrs. Walter Hively were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Clay in Canfield.

Elizabeth Wright, son Ben and daughter Mary and Mrs. Maw Harchman of Salem were Sunday evening callers at Walter Hively's.

M. E. Parry's carpenters of Salem began work on Bush's confectionery store and garage, Monday morning.

William Reese will assist C. W. Clay with road work this Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Curry was called Sunday evening as nurse by a party south of Leetonia.

Fruit thought not to be much damaged by recent white frosts.

Callers at W. P. Coy's on Sunday were Mr. Stone and Mrs. Smith of Youngstown, Mrs. Flickinger, Mr. Cadwalder, Mr. Niedhiser and Mr. Thomas of Salem; also other friends and relatives numbering twenty in all.

ELLSWORTH

May 19.—Mrs. J. F. Schaefer and daughter Pauline spent Friday in Warren and Newton Falls.

Mrs. Sarah Howard and Miss Flora Rose were here from Wickliffe, one day last week.

Grange met Tuesday night.

John Davis of Warren visited here recently.

Grangers served lunch at Keller's sale last Thursday.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Several from here attended the play given at Rosemont last Saturday.

Wm. Cutting purchased a fine pony for his daughter Mildred.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Florence and daughter Marjorie were in Jackson one evening last week.

Several from here attended a dance at Canfield, Saturday night.

Quite a few of our young people went to North Jackson one evening last week to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Golt and children were in North Jackson, Friday night.

Samuel Gosser was in Canfield, Saturday.

Harry Schaefer was in Canfield one day recently.

John Bunts and Arthur Baringer are working in Youngstown.

Mrs. Wm. Zimmerman and son, Fred Gensler, of North Jackson called here Saturday night.

Elizabeth Ressler is on the sick list.

Miss Anna Schaefer returned home from Warren, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Florence entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carl Florence and children of Berlin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schaefer of Lowellville spent Saturday evening here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Golt entertained a number of friends last Sunday.

NORTH LIMA

May 19.—Pentecostal communion services will be conducted in Good Hope Lutheran church next Sunday morning, with preparatory services in connection. Luther League meets in the evening. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Graf, expects to spend part of the week in Evans City, Pa., where a conference of the Lutheran church is being held.

Mrs. Theresa Peabodies of Youngstown will give an elocutionary recital in the school auditorium Friday evening, May 28. She will be assisted by a number of her pupils.

The Dixie Girls closed the season's lyceum course with a delightful entertainment Tuesday evening.

Several heavy frosts visited the community last week and probably damaged the fruit crop. Many early tender vegetables were destroyed.

A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heindel.

Mrs. Lucy Driebelds of Frisco, Tex., was the guest of Mrs. S. M. Coles, last week.

J. C. Azzell of Pittsburgh called on friends here last week.

Mrs. George Heindel spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Lot Holloway in Columbiana. Mr. Holloway is seriously ill.

The home of A. R. Beard, near New Buffalo, was destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon with practically all its contents. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

A Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized here last week by ladies from Alliance.

Subscribe to The Dispatch

BERLIN CENTER

May 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Foster Hillis and baby Theresa and Mrs. Susie Hoover visited at George Hillis' on Sunday afternoon.

Lewis Rakestraw of Alliance spent Sunday here with his parents.

Mrs. Louisa Leyman visited on Sunday at Arthur Schisler's.

Master Jerrold Keeler had the misfortune to have a leg broken.

M. A. Hawn spent Sunday in Sebring with his son Clyde and family.

Moses Flickinger, Lewis Hoyle and son Walter of Salem visited friends here, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bardo and daughter Merle visited at Howard Bardo's in Patmos, Sunday.

Miss Eliza Stockley of Alliance was a guest in the home of Eli Rakestraw over Sunday.

Several here were sorry to hear of the death of James Paul Wilson of Milton in the Warren city hospital. He was injured in an automobile accident May 9 and taken to the hospital where he died several days later.

Mrs. Ida Dushman of Ravenna visited her daughter, Mrs. Earl Weldon, on Sunday.

Eli Rakestraw has sold his place, formerly the Armstrong farm, to a foreign family.

Mrs. Margaret Smith, daughter Evelyn, son Earl, Thurman Diehl and Charles Miller were entertained on Thursday evening in the home of John Bardo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyle and Mr. and Mrs. James Chamberlain visited at Clyde Baringer's, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Cover had a hand severely bruised by a motor wringer last week.

A number of relatives here attended the funeral of Mrs. Carey Jewell at Smithtown last Thursday forenoon.

She died Monday morning after one week of terrible suffering, being severely burned when her clothes caught fire from a cook stove. The Jewell family lived in Berlin a number of years and sympathy is extended to the young husband, who had only been married about six months.

Homor Cline has had his home painted.

Rev. Caven's subject for next Sunday morning at the M. E. church will be "Superstition and Religion." On Sunday evening, May 30, he will deliver the Memorial sermon.

BLANCO

May 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Swank and son Russell and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith visited last Sunday at Ralph Bowman's in Patmos.

Levi Klingeman of Newton Falls recently spent a few days here with his son Elmer.

J. R. Dodd and family of Austintown, Burton Kale and family of Berlin and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kale spent Sunday at H. E. Kale's.

W. F. Henkenberger was in Youngstown, Monday.

W. H. Wolf of Youngstown visited his sister, Mrs. James Welser, and family, Sunday.

Mrs. J. Helsel and son Clyde were in Berlin last Saturday.

Eli Rakestraw and family and Nathan Rakestraw of Berlin and Mrs. Sue Hoover of Ravenna were Sunday callers at H. E. Kale's.

Miss Opal Orr of Berlin spent a few days here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrs Mead.

Master Russell Swank has tonsillitis. Last Sunday Mrs. Hiram Helsel entertained her sister, Mrs. Mattie Crow, and family of West Farmington.

Burton Kale of Berlin was in Newton Falls, Tuesday.

Frank Porter was in Youngstown the other day.

Mrs. Will Prescott, son and daughter returned home to Youngstown after spending several weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Flick.

Sam Smith sold the farm formerly owned by Burton Kale to parties from Pennsylvania.

Oliver, Theodore and Clyde Helsel spent the whole town show in North Jackson, Saturday night.

Miss Mabel Kale is at the home of Mrs. Peter Brown in Diamond.

Mrs. Florence Bryan visited on Sunday with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Eckis, and family.

Some neat fields in this neighborhood look fairly well.

GEEBURG

May 19.—No new cases of smallpox. Mr. and Mrs. George Solser of North Jackson called here, Sunday.

Miss Blanche McKenzie called on Miss Esther Miller, Sunday.

Mrs. Will Oram and daughter Aneta of Youngstown spent Sunday at Urias Yeager's.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie were Miss Ava McKenzie, Miss Blanche McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKenzie of Alliance.

Miss Dorothy Berkey, who has smallpox, is recovering nicely.

Miss Myrtle Baird of North Jackson called here, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Miller spent last Tuesday in Canfield.

Clarence McKenzie was in North Jackson, Saturday.

Miss Wilma Gallagher left on Monday for her home in Guernsey county.

Quite a number from here attended the play in Rosemont Saturday night.

J. M. Yeager was in Canfield, Friday.

Howard Yeager and Miss Lulu Yeager attended a dance at George Sinn's in North Jackson, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Friend Ponton and son Wilber of North Jackson spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rhodes.

Miss Bertha Musser and Minnie Miller spent Sunday with Mr. Secrest and family.

Prof. Fred Myers of Canfield called here last Thursday.

Urias and William Yeager left on Saturday for Wood county to visit relatives.

Miss Anna Dennis has returned home after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. George Jerry, in Berlin township.